

NATALIA SALAMIN

Natalia identifies as teenie rather than Stone Age. She has been bathing in the joy of music since primeval times as she already took piano tuition from the age of ten and after customary recorder lessons. Following fascinating years as a choir singer, she pilgrimaged to the Viking bards in Copenhagen where her graduation from the vocal arts course completed a long-fostered dream. When asked with which music legend she would like to get stuck in a lift, she says: «With Freddy Mercury and Helene Fischer!»
